

JOSEPH, MANN & CREED

Accounts Receivable Management

Raise Your Expectations...

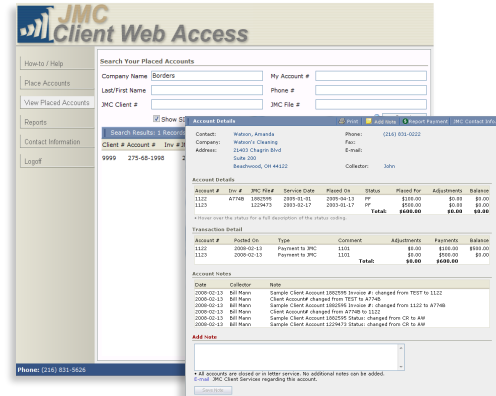

Companies of all sizes, including members of the Fortune 500, rely on Joseph, Mann & Creed as a key partner.

At JMC, we pride ourselves on our reputation of providing excellent client service and reliable, consistent results. Unlike many collection agencies, our accounts receivable management approach stresses problem solving, negotiating and mediating with our clients' customers to resolve the debt. This approach maintains customer good will and produces higher recovery percentages.

For our clients, that means more dollars collected at an overall lower cost.

Advantages of being a JMC Client:

- Interactive on-line capabilities for clients and their customers
- Client defined and ad-hoc reporting
- Call recording and monitoring available
- Power and predictive dialer technology
- Credit Reporting available
- No charge for withdrawn accounts or adjustments
- No charge for asset research and skip-tracing
- Contingency, pre-collection and outsourcing Programs
- No non-contingent suit fees
- Personalized Client Services
- Bonded and licensed nationwide

Industry Experience:
